COURT SMILES AND FINES NEAR BEER FOR PROXIMITY

Too Near Beer and Too Near Park to Suit Judge Lightfoot's Taste.

Acts as Own Expert Witness and Is Convinced.

LOUIS CAPORAL GIVEN $100

Dispensers of "near beer" get little comfort when arraigned before the county court. Judge Lightfoot this morning after delivering a scathing denunciation of such traffic, assessed a fine of $100 against Louis Caporal, proprietor of a stand near Wallace park, for selling intoxicating liquors. The amount of the fine was the largest permissible under the statute.

The finding of Caporal followed a "court of tasting," when Judge Lightfoot, test, witnesses and attorneys opened bottles of different concoctions that had been purchased from Caporal's place. Judge Lightfoot acted as master of ceremonies at the "tasting" and opened several bottles, which he set aside, pronouncing them non-intoxicating and "would not harm an infant." Finally two bottles were resurrected from the cooler, where they had been placed by order of the court to cool preparatory to the tasting process. At the first quaff from the black bottle a broad smile came over the countenance of the judge. "That's beer—good beer, too," he said. Captain Joe Wood was invited to "take one," which he did, and testified that he bought similar tasting stuff from Caporal's stand. Caporal refused to testify in his own behalf and a fine of $100 was assessed.

In addition to the fine a motion was made by County Attorney Barkley to take as forfeited the bond of George Smith, clerk at the drink stand. Caporal is sure on the bond and unless Smith is returned to the custody of the court the bond of $200 must be paid. Smith was at the court house just before the cases were called, but it is said he ran away and efforts of deputy sheriffs to apprehend him were without success.

The prosecutions against Caporal and his clerk were brought by William Macne, manager of the park, and representing the traction company and by merchants and citizens who live adjacent to the park. Captain Joe Wood was employed to secure evidence, which he did by drinking at the stand and buying bottles to be used as exhibits at the trial. A number of citizens and park employees were present at the trial and appeared interested in the proceedings.

ALDERMAN MILLER DECLARES WIFE OF PHILLIP STEPHON GAVE HIM CHECK FOR $100

Mayor and City Solicitor Inquiring Into Affair to Ascertain if Criminal Intent Existed.

A warrant will be issued by Police Judge Cross for the arrest of Mrs. Phillip Stephon for attempted bribery. The charge rests on alleged violation of section 3207 of the revised statutes, forbidding the offer of any sort of compensation to a member of the general council to use his official influence. The penalty is a fine or imprisonment from one to five years.

Mayor Smith, City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., and Police Judge Cross instituted a court of inquiry this afternoon to determine whether there was anything criminal in the alleged proffer of a check for $100 by Mrs. Phillip Stephon to Alderman W. T. Miller, when the latter agreed to interest other members of the general council in granting her husband a saloon license at Ninth street and Kentucky avenue. City Attorney A. Y. Martin and County Attorney Allen Barkley were present.

Mrs. Stephon has employed Wheeler, Hughes & Berry to represent her and decline to talk about the affair. Alderman Miller said he thinks that since the neighborhood has been reentered there is no danger of a disorderly resort being conducted. He had no intention of prosecuting the case and consented Mr. E. H. Puryear and then Mayor Smith and Solicitor Campbell about the best way of returning the check to preserve himself from any future reflections. Solicitor Campbell insisted on the prosecution.

Several consequences may result of the motive behind the action of Mrs. Stephon, wife of Phillip Stephon, the saloonkeeper, of 291 North Ninth street, in leaving a check for $100 on Alderman W. T. Miller's desk in his piano store, 520 Broadway on Saturday. Alderman Miller found the check under a blotter on his desk after a conference with Mrs. Stephon in which she asked him to use his influence to have her husband's saloon license granted, in spite of the adverse decision of the license committee. His impression was that she expected the check to pay him for his work in seeing the other members of the general council, and not in payment of his vote, which he had previously promised.

Laughter at the absurdity of any person attempting to bribe Alderman Miller broke from the members of the council heard last night when under oath he related the incident. But the seriousness of the offense caused them to become deeply concerned that any city official should be even approached in such a manner, and the remarks of City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., heightened their interest. They following his advice, to refer the case to the mayor and city solicitor, to probe it to the bottom, to punish any and all persons proven guilty of attempted bribery, which is a penitentiary offense.

Alderman Miller made a startling statement at the close of the regular meeting of the councilmen last night. He did so on advice of the city solicitor, who thought that official recognition of the incident should be taken by the general council. Alderman Miller had been advised to return the check to Mrs. Stephon, accompanied by the mayor as a witness, but was urged to the course he followed. After being sworn by City Clerk Maurice McIntyre, Alderman Miller said:

"Mr. President: Some days ago I was visited by Mrs. Stephon, who asked me to use my influence to have a saloon license granted to her husband, Phillip Stephon, at Ninth and Kentucky avenue, and as I thought his house was in the business district, I indicated to her that I would do so. On Saturday, I went into my store and was told by a clerk that a woman had been in to see me, who seemed much annoyed about something, and while I was in the store, a woman entered, whom I recognized as Mrs. Stephon. She again brought up the question of the license and asked me to see the other members of the general council to get them to act favorably on the license. I agreed to this and she offered me a check, which I refused. She insisted and I finally told her I could take no money for my services. Then she desisted and I took the check in my hand to ascertain the amount, so I could be sure of the nature of the offense. Then she refused to take it back until I insisted.

On my desk at which she sat is a large blotter and after she left, this check was found by me under one edge of it. I did not know what to do about it until Mr. Campbell, the city solicitor, advised me on this course. I leave the matter in your hands."

Depositing the check with the city clerk, Alderman Miller retired. The check is dated July 18, drawn on the Citizens Savings bank for $100, payable to bearer and signed by Phillip Stephon. The signature is in ink but the rest of the check was written in a typewriter. It will be held as evidence, City Solicitor Campbell said.

"Gentlemen of the Council: This appears to be an attempt to unlawfully influence a city official, which is a most heinous offense and the first I have knowledge of city affairs. I think it should be dealt with to the full extent of the law. I would recommend that you refer it to the proper officials for an immediate investigation and, if sufficient grounds are developed, the guilty person, or persons, should be prosecuted. I promise that if it falls to my lot to handle the case no compromise will be made and no effort will be spared to give an object lesson on the enormity of such an offense."

Alderman Miller's statement came after the council had refused to grant a license to Stephon. Stephon had been in the councilman's chamber earlier in the evening, but had left when the bribery incident came up. Alderman Miller stated that he had seen only two or three members of the council about the license when the check was left on his desk. Of course, after he ceased to advocate the granting of the license, Stephon's license was adversely reported by the license committee in its hearing last week and the council concurred in its report, with only Councilman Bowers voting to grant the license.

F. E. LACK PURCHASES PLANT OF MERGENTHALER-HORTON BASKET CO.

It is Reported That New Industry Will Occupy Building if Sale is Confirmed.

The Mergenthaler-Horton Basket plant was sold for the third time by Special Master Hummel. As upon the occasion of the last previous sale, Mr. F. E. Lack was the successful bidder, securing the property for $32,050, which is $2,025 less than he bid for it when it was sold June 1.

The report of the sale by Special Master Hummel will be submitted to Judge Lorton, at Huntington, Tenn., and probably the sale will be confirmed without opposition.

This is to be hoped for, as it is reliably intimated that a new and considerable industry will occupy the plant in the near future should no further obstacles intervene.

Mr. Lack is a man who does things, being the head of the Lack Singletree company, the Lack Malabar iron company and largely interested in the Columbia Manufacturing company.

UNKNOWN PARTIES FIRE ON TOWBOAT HARVESTER OF WEST KENTUCKY FLEET AND BLOW UP BARGE AT CASEYVILLE, KY.

SHOOT ENGINEER THROUGH STOMACH AND WATCHMAN

Believed That Miners, Who Have Been Fighting Open Shop, Are Responsible For The Outrage Last Night.

CASEYVILLE CASUALTIES.

Engineer John Goodall, of Harvester, shot in stomach. Night watchman of Harvester, shot on foot. Coal barge sunk with dynamite. Hundreds of shots fired by unknown parties at Caseyville.

Dynamite was used by a mob at Caseyville last night to blow up towboats and barges belonging to the West Kentucky Coal company, and hundreds of bullets were fired into the Fannie Wallace and Harvester, wounding John Goodall, engineer on the Harvester, in the stomach and shooting the night watchman through the foot.

Particulars of the outrage were received by telephone this morning and though it is not definitely known who did the dynamiting and shooting, it is supposed to be the work of miners incited by agitators.

Without warning to the men on the boats, a loaded barge was blown up by dynamite and volleys after volleys of shots were fired into the towboats. On the Harvester were Engineer John Goodall and a night watchman, both of whom were struck by bullets. Goodall's wound in the stomach was thought fatal last night, but this morning he is better and will be brought to the Riverside hospital here tonight. Company employees went on the boat after the shooting last night and carried Goodall to the company's rink house at Sturgis, where his wound was dressed.

On the Fannie Wallace, the engineer was pumping when the attack was made, and though numerous bullets hit him, he was not hurt. A bullet struck him, but he was not hurt. The watchman on the Harvester was wounded slightly in the foot, but will not be brought here to the hospital. Dynamite charges damaged the Fannie Wallace but did not reach the big Harvester.

One loaded barge was sunk by the dynamite, entailing a loss of $2,500 for the barge and $1,000 for the coal. A fleet of loaded barges had been accumulated for the Harvester to take south on the first rise in the river and the boats and barges were lying together. Captain F. R. Farnsley, of 900 Tennessee street, left his boat, the Harvester, night before last, to come to Paducah, and on his way being wounded or possibly killed.

John Goodall, the wounded engineer, lives in Gallipolis, O., having become a member of the Harvester's crew when that boat ran from Pittsburgh to southern points with coal. He was asleep when the outrage began and was shot before he had time to dress completely. The men on the boats were not told who their assailants were, but all clues point to disgruntled miners.

Stone, president of the chamber of commerce of Oklahoma City, and one of the leading Democrats of the state, said here today that he thought there was some doubt about Bryan carrying the state. "Oklahoma is normally Democratic," he said, "but it is going to be hard work to carry it for Bryan, especially since Congressman Flynn, one of the most popular men in the state, has announced that he would be a candidate for the senate in case the state went republican."

Want Hearst to Head Party. New York, July 21.—A number of William H. Hearst's friends in New York City today declared Mr. Hearst ought to be the candidate of the independence party for president, and said no other man in the movement could hold the vote of the organization.

MOSAIC TEMPLARS GET DOWN TO WORK THIS AFTERNOON

The public program given last night at the Washington Street Baptist church to welcome the colored delegates, who are attending the national order of Mosaic of America, was interesting and instructive. It was a red letter night with Moslems in the city of Paducah. Never before has the colored people of this section witnessed such a helpful and inspiring address as the one delivered by Hon. A. W. Barkley, John McClellan and a number of others. It was a feast of oratory interspersed with solos and anthems by the augmented choir.

Dr. C. A. Isbell acted as master of ceremonies. Attorney J. W. Egger introduced Mr. Barkley. The county attorney was given a splendid ovation and throughout his address he was given careful attention and was frequently interrupted with applause.

He said "he was glad to welcome to the city of Paducah such a fine set of representative colored people. That it was refreshing to see such a large number of honest, intelligent and law-abiding colored people assembled for the purpose of organization and elevation of the race of which you are a member. There have always been organizations among all races for the purpose of perpetuating brotherly love and the spread of humanity." At this point the speaker discussed the wisdom of God in having races and clans among his people, and yet said they are for the most part marching forward making for their cardinal principles progress and success.

"Through the light of religion, freedom and intelligence all men become equal before the law and this was what made America great. Every man has a duty to perform and no man should stay the hand of a race in the performance of that duty."

He closed saying that he did not know about the order, but that he believed it was a good one.

RESIDENTS MUST CONNECT UP WITH DISTRICT NO. 1

City health officer, Dr. H. P. Sights, issued a notice this morning that all residents in sewer district No. 1, who have never connected with the sewer, must do so within ten days or the sanitary inspectors will begin to issue warrants for the delinquents. When the time limit has expired the inspectors will note every residence where operations to install sewer connections have not been begun, and the same vigorous course will be followed in this campaign for health as in the weed-cutting order. It is known that all residents cannot make connections within ten days, but it is expected that they can have the work under way or give substantial proof of their intentions to comply with the notice. Although sewer No. 1 has been laid for many years, there are still many residents who have never connected, and it is to these that the notice applies.

Judge Breathitt cited cases, where the law had held in Minnesota and in other states, as the courts have held that the barbers' business involves public health and they are subject to police regulation. While on the board Mr. Frakes has had difficulty in getting some barbers to be examined, but peace is looked for now. The law has never been carried into the courts for a test case.

Bryan Interested in Foraker's Attitude in Ohio, According to Lincoln Report.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 21.— According to Democratic leaders who have been to Fairview and conferred with Mr. Bryan, the ability of the Democratic party to secure the negro vote in Ohio will depend largely on the attitude of Senator Foraker. So long as he remains outside the Republican breastworks, at least regards Judge Taft, the delegates feel insured of large negro support in that state.
Should, however, Senator Foraker become reconciled and lend his support to Taft, it is conceded that there is little probability of enrolling the sufficient number of negro voters in the cause of Democracy to materially affect the result.

Former Attorney General Frank S.
Monnett, of Columbus, and E. H.
Moore, of Youngstown, who was chairman of the last Democratic state convention in Ohio, are today speeding home, after a conference with Mr.
Bryan last night, with instructions to size up the situation and take every advantage of the so-called Foraker-Taft feud.

Little Hope in Illinois.
The first feeling of hopefulness with regard to Illinois is not gaining ground and while that state will be carefully looked after, it has been practically determined that the main efforts in the middle west will be directed toward Indiana and Ohio, where the Democratic leaders are counting on wresting the majority vote from the Republican column. A novel method for ascertaining the sentiment of the country toward the two candidates is being adopted by a number of Democrats traveling on the transcontinental trains through Lincoln. For the past several days visitors to Fairview have kept Mr. Bryan informed of the result of polls made by them of passengers aboard the trains. It is said that the figures presented were highly gratifying to Mr.

Bryan.

One thing is definitely settled and that is that the chairmanship of the national committee will not go to a southern man because of the attitude of the southerners toward the negro.
Although Mr. Bryan thinks highly of Mr. Ollie James, of Kentucky, and his name was prominently considered for the place, the position taken by Mr.
James some time ago in favoring the disfranchisement of the negro made his appointment out of the question.

TOBACCO TRADE FOREIGN LANDS

America Supplies by Far the Greater Part of Amount Used.

France Cultivating Some of the Weed.
But It Is Not a Formidable Competitor of United States.

REPORTED AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, July 21.—The foreign tobacco trade is the subject of a symposium recently published by the United States bureau of manufacturers, to which a number of American consular officers contributed.

Consul General Frank K. Mowrer reports from Copenhagen that only a retail tobacco business is carried on in Denmark, practically all tobacco being imported, and there being no internal revenue tax imposed upon the tobacco trade. Only about 100,000 pounds of tobacco is grown in Denmark, and it does not compare with tobacco imported from America. Kentucky tobacco is used in Denmark for chewing, while Virginia tobacco is a favorite for short-pipe smoking. American tobacco is considered too strong for cigars in Denmark, and they are made from Brazilian and Java tobacco.
The consumption of cigarettes in Denmark has increased from ten millions to one hundred millions annually during the past decade.

Denmark Importations.
American tobacco is imported into Denmark from Bremen, Hamburg and Amsterdam, where dealers pay cash for the same, but sell it to Danish merchants on credit. Nearly 700,000 pounds of American tobacco was imported by Denmark in 1906, the total from Holland being much larger, while the total from all countries was over 13,000,000 pounds.

Consul General Robert J. Wynne writes from London that, except in Ireland, no tobacco is grown in the United Kingdom. In Ireland the business is in an experimental stage, only about seventy-seven acres of the crop being grown. In order to encourage the industry, the government allows a rebate of the internal revenue tax on tobacco to its growers.

Great Britain imports nearly all of her tobacco from this country, the total amount of American tobacco of various kinds sent to England last year being 88,500,000 pounds, as against 13,500,000 pounds from all other countries.

Conditions in France.
The tobacco business in France is a government monopoly. Consul General Frank H. Mason, of Paris, reports from which the government derived a revenue in 1906 amounting to over $32,000,000. The government imports certain grades of tobacco free of duty, but private importations have to pay high tariffs. Over half of the government's importation of leaf tobacco and stems in 1906 came from the United States, the total being something over 68,000,000 pounds, of which the United States furnished 34,000,000 pounds, and the Philippine Islands 1,231,000 pounds. In addition to these kinds of tobacco, 146,- 000 pounds of cigars were imported into France from the United States and the Philippines. Algeria and several European countries contributed the bulk of the balance of French tobacco imports.

In 1906 France exported 19,061,- 000 pounds of tobacco, valued at $4,- 223,246, practically none of it to the United States.

Tobacco is cultivated in France under strict government regulation. Everybody is allowed to grow two tobacco plants for decorative purposes. If he wishes to grow more than that he must secure a license and declare how many plants he intends to cultivate.
When his crop is matured he must sell to the government at the government's price. Under these circumstances, it is not surprising that the French tobacco crop is declining, having amounted to only 26,000,000 pounds in 1906, as compared with an average of 49,000,000 pounds for the preceding ten years. Consul General Mason naively remarks that "there is nothing in the record of recent years to indicate that the supply of home-grown French tobacco will, either in respect to quantity or quality, become more formidable than it has been hitherto as a competitor with the better grades of tobacco from the United States." At the end of his interesting report Consul General Mason submits the following interesting conclusions:

Increase Shown.
"First, that the importation of raw tobacco leaf and stems into France increased from 55,729,611 pounds in in the year 1906 it supplied 34,167,- 102 pounds, or 56.2 per cent. of the total quantity imported.

"Third, that three countries which supplied part of the imports of 1896, viz.: Italy, British India and Brazil, fell wholly out of the competition in 1906, and their places were taken by three other countries, viz.: Haiti, the Dominican Republic and Argentina.
This shows that the three last named countries are endeavoring to gain a foothold for their leaf tobacco in the French market.

"Fourth, it is also shown that the competition of native French tobacco is not increasing, the crop of 1906—the last year fully reported—being the smallest gathered in any season during the past ten years.

"Thus far, therefore, it cannot be said that the tobacco of any other country is being substituted to any serious extent in France for the American product, but this would naturally ensue if any important and permanent advance in the price of American tobacco should be made and maintained."

In the Far East.

The United States is credited with furnishing the largest percentage of the foreign tobacco consumed in Korea, according to Consul General Thomas Sammons, in a report from Seoul. In 1907 importations of tobacco, mostly cigarettes, into Korea were worth $545,000. It is estimated that the 20,000,000 people in Korea consume 840,000,000 cigarettes annually, of which Japan furnishes 43,- 000,000 monthly. The balance are composed largely of Virginia leaf tobacco and are manufactured mostly at Shanghai, and in this country and England. The lump retail valuation of the Korean cigarette trade is placed at $340,000. Korean pipe smokers appear to be in the majority, however.
The Japanese tobacco monopoly is actively pushing its trade in Korea, the consul general writes, and a sharp struggle is on between the Oriental and Occidental to control the Korean tobacco trade. With over 40 per cent. of the Korean cigarette trade and fully 50 per cent. of the entire Manchurian import tobacco trade controlled by American and British concerns, the latter are exerting every effort to increase their business.
Many salesmen are in the field, cigarettes are being distributed free, advertisements posted, printing plants operated. The Japanese are selling in Korea chiefly hand-made cigarettes with paper mouthpieces. If a similar product can be made by machinery, Consul Sammons writes, the American trade in Korea will grow rapidly.
This outcome is promised for the immediate future, with the result that before long, it is predicted, American and British dealers will control over half the Korean cigarette trade.

Difficulties have been encountered by the Americans arising from fraud practiced by the Japanese with trademarks. Remedial measures have been taken by the Americans through international channels and otherwise.
Consul D. R. Birch, of Genoa, writes that experiments in tobacco culture are being carried on in Northeastern Italy with considerable success. Last year forty-two acres were under cultivation. A new company has been formed to carry on the experiments, and it will cultivate 300 acres of land. It is believed that the soil of Italy is capable of producing good tobacco.

Judge E. Harry, editor of the Ben-en route home from a trip through Hallard and Carlisle counties, in the interest of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for state senator.

Judge Harry received many assurances of support from prominent members of the party in the counties visited and was enthusiastic over his prospects of success. Judge Harry makes the advantage of the plea that Marshall county has not been represented in the senate for 35 years.

CHICAGO LADIES ORCHESTRA TODAY

Feature of Chautauqua Program at Night.

Excursions on River to Attend This Entertainment—Miss Smith's Reading.

THE PROGRAM FOR TOMORROW.

The engagement of the Chicago Ladies orchestra for this evening at the Chautauqua assembly has been anticipated with no small degree of pleasure by music lovers, and it is expected a large audience will be present. A special excursion from Metropolis this evening has been arranged, leaving there at 7 o'clock and returning from Paducah after the concert. This concert tonight is a rare musical treat and should be liberally patronized.

As a prelude to the concert, Miss Elma H. Smith will give several numbers. Those who heard Miss Smith yesterday afternoon and evening have given out the word that she is not only an entertainer of pronounced ability but is one of the most charming little persons on the platform. Her work is of the highest order and one of the most acceptable features of this year's program. The management is to be congratulated upon securing her services for the entire week; she is a real drawing card.

Dr. Sears' second lecture was as entertaining as his first and his appearance here will be remembered by those who heard him. He left a most happy, laughing, optimistic impression and with it a few good lessons for everyday, practical living. Mr. Speed's work is even better than ever and many are enjoying his heart to heart talks on nature and her relations to man. The threatening weather interfered to an extent with the attendance last evening but those who heard Mr. Lowrey spent a very enjoyable evening and heard a very good and very humorous lecture. Mr. Lowrey delivered his popular lecture, "The Fountain of Youth," this afternoon, which was well received.

Tomorrow.

The program for tomorrow includes, in addition to the readings of Miss Smith at 4 and 7:30 o'clock and the nature study of Mr. Speed, lectures by Dr. J. Everist Cathell and Senator Robert Taylor. Dr. Cathell is a prominent divine of the Protestant Episcopal church, and in speaking of his work, President Nolan, of Lake Forest College, says:

"It is a rare thing these days to find in a public speaker the combination of such qualities as power and sympathy, dignity and humor, learning and eloquence, high culture and the graces of the orator. Dr. J. Everist Cathell has these qualities in an unusual degree. He cannot fail to please his audience."

Senator Bob Taylor, we all know, some of us intimately as a personal friend, others as an orator of rare ability, the best story-teller we ever heard, and as a genius, portraying the beauties of nature and the humbler every-day character. His new lecture, "Castles in the Air," is his best. In speaking of it the Memphis Scimitar says:

"A flash of imagery, a burst of eloquence, and a wealth of glittering thoughts scattered like fireflies over a clear field—that is Bob Taylor's lecture. A song borne in the wings of some dear old melody, a joke rippling from a fountain of humor, a subtle hint of pathos awakening tender, sacred memories—that is Bob Taylor's lecture. Words painted in all the colors of fancy and put together with all the skill of faultless diction, the lights of innocent childhood, and the shadows of sombre age developed on the background of common experience—that is Bob Taylor's lecture. A radiant smile penetrating the gloom of despondency, a ray of hope arched in every man's horizon, a fragrant flower to brighten and to cheer—that is Bob Taylor's lecture."

It is expected the Chautauqua auditorium will be packed to its capacity to hear Senator Taylor. People in all walks of life know and have heard him and even the old "antebellum" darkeys are asking if they can come to hear old "Marse Bob" speak. His appearance here is noted.

worthy and he will no doubt be given an ovation.

Freedom and License.

"These anarchists," said H. K. Adams, the Western detective, "have about the same ideas of freedom and the privileges of a free country as my little boy Bill has."

"The United States is a free land, ain't it, pa?" said Bill the other day, and he looked up from a circus poster full of cuts of somersaulting automobiles, of balloon races and elephants revolving two by two in the "Merry Widow" waltz.

"Yes, Billy-boy, this is a free country," said I.

"Then," said Bill, "why don't they let a feller into the circus without paying?"—Washington Star.

We can only die once—much to the regret of the undertaker.

Reports From Thirty States Received

Chicago, July 21.—Reports from freight cars since the high mark more than thirty states received here which was reached in May. Prospects this week indicate that the long her- for the crops in Illinois are good, the wheat business revival is making slight reduction in wheat acreage being offset by the increase in oats, and estimates for the corn crop place the total at 325,000,000 bushels slowly from the effects of the depression about the same as last year. Region. Manufacturers and dealers of goods from Milwaukee, Duluth, Detroit, Pittsburgh report that the last two months have seen a marked increase in the volume of business and prospects for the future are very encouraging. In Chicago over 10,000 railroad men have gone back to work since the first of the year. Half of the men the packers laid off during the winter are back at their old places. Not later than August 1st, we must have every piece of furniture out of the store formerly occupied by D. F. Alexander, for other parties have leased the building. It's not a question of profit now; we must get rid of the goods and the prices which we have put on the stock are startling, even in comparison with the low prices which prevailed during our famous Dutch Auction Sale, which moved such a tremendous volume of furniture. If you want to see how much lower, read the few items below. These new prices go into effect tomorrow morning. Come and make your selections tomorrow for in ten days this fine stock will all be gone, and at prices which are almost the same as giving it away.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

County Court Clerk.

The Sun is authorized to announce Hiram Smedley a candidate for re-election to the office of Clerk of the McCracken County Court subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For City Jailor.

The Sun is authorized to announce W. T. (Billie) Read a candidate for City Jailor, subject to the action of the Democratic primary August 6.

Daily Thought.

"Short views lengthen troubles; long views shorten them."

The Prohibition candidate for the presidency absolutely declines to accept a penny from the liquor dealers' association.

Unless their pictures do them gross injustice, Anna Gould and Prince Hell must look like Kid Mc-Coy and his valet.

Tom Watson might propose to the other candidates that they leave it all to the people and not use any campaign fund at all.

Some mistake in transmission of the report made the increase in the state school per capita fund 46 cents instead of "to $3.45." The increase is five cents.

We are beginning to cult much ripened editorial wisdom on the subject: "Whither Are We Drifting?" But for us, no long as we drift, we know we are afloat.

It is reported that straw votes taken on trains entering Lincoln, Neb., the last three weeks show an overwhelming majority for Bryan.
Even such impartial observations as this are not always infallible. It is possible that a similar test made on trains entering Hot Springs, Va., would indicate an unmistakable trend toward Taft.

FRUITS OF DIPLOMACY.

More indications of the beneficent effect of the foreign policy of Secretary of State Elihu Root and the visit of Secretary of War Taft are apparent in China's announcement that she will send a commission to formally thank this government for returning part of the Boxer indemnity, and that she will send 100 students each year to study in this country. In ten years 1,000 of China's most learned men, educated at the government's expense for government service, will be trained under American influence. While Europe is warring for the partition of China this country is training Chinamen to develop their own country, and America will reap her reward in oriental trade and the possession of a mighty ally so close to Japan that the Island Empire will never dare lift its arm in hostility.

THE THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT.

It is significant, the basic with which William R. Hearst made his announcement of hostility to the Bryan candidacy, in spite of the kindly tone in which the Commoner spoke of Hearst; and the vigor with which Tom Watson, attacked the Democratic party in Georgia. It is evident that these two aslate politiclans expect this to be the last campaign in which Democracy will cut a national figure. And each—Hearst with his Independent party and Watson with his Populist party—hopes to make such a showing that his organization will be recognized as the true successor of Democracy. There will always be an opposition party.

The prohibitionists, to be sure, are in the fight, but Watson and Hearst seem to be proceeding with the same object in view and it is probable that many local organizations will be formed and attached to either the Independent or Populist party by men of observation, who desire to be first into the new party.

THE SHIPPERS VIEW.

O. C. Barber, head of the match trust, is the first to speak about the increase in freight rates. His company uses annually 150,000 cars, and he will feel the increase. His words are in reply to a speech of W.
C. Brown, of the New York Central.
Mr. Barber's conclusion is that manipulating railroad stock does not promote prosperity and intimates that some such project is behind this attempt to increase earnings. He suggests that railroads take their medicine along with other industries, and instead of using surplus earnings to promote the interests of the speculators, who control them; part of the earning he spent in doubletracking, abolishing grade crossings and adding to equipment; so that when the full dawn of prosperity is upon them, they will be able to handle the business and facilitate transactions between manufacturer and consumer at reduced rates, which is itself a stimulator of trade.

The opening quotations were in reply to a statement by Mr. Brown to the effect that "our prosperity came with the prosperity of the railroads. It declined when adversity struck the railroads. We do not believe that we can have a full measure of prosperity again until the railroads are prosperous.

"Let us analyze," suggests Mr.
Barber, "what the prosperity of the railroads truly is to the people. It does not mean prosperity to the masses of the people when the railroads, by their manipulations, augment the values of the stocks of such companies, thereby creating great wealth for the manipulators at the general public.

Regarding the relation between prosperity and some railroad history Mr. Barber says:

"It was not prosperity, except to a few, that, by the manipulation of the Northern Pacific railroad, shares were hoomed from $10 to $200 per share, at which price they were turned in to the Northern Securities company, which company's shares were in turn manipulated to a selling price of $340 per share, and then the general public was asked to pay such rates of freight as would pay dividends on these inflated values. This was not true prosperity, although seeming prosperity may have been quickened speculatively by such transactions.

"It was not true prosperity that caused increasing earnings of railroads each succeeding month over the corresponding month of the preceding year, continued over a period of several years, as anyone familiar with the situation must know was existent and culminative in 1907. It was not true prosperity to the people of the country that the said increased earnings were used to buy other railroads, as was done by the New York Central railroad when they purchased all the traction lines between New York and Buffalo that in no legiti-mate way could have an effect on the earnings and value of the New York Central lines, of which Mr. Brown is senior vice-president. This is not only applicable to the New York Central railroad, but to all other trunk lines, and it did not extend solely to traction lines, as instance the Union Pacific holdings of other corporate lines that they wished to control that they might augment their own wealth and rob the people by undue charges.

"And these earnings been utilized to improve the physical condition of the roads from which they had made such vast returns, there would have been no shortage of transportation or of the rapidly increasing business of the country. Had the latter course been pursued, there would have been no cause for advance of freight rates or railroad charges, but the great increase the railroads would have received from their increased business would have enabled them, without further increase of capital or further watering of stocks, to have reduced their rates of freight and given better service to all concerned."

Mr. Barber insists that the railroads have violated the laws of political economy and of compensation, which are immutable.
He exclaims: "Let the increased values go toward the reduction from time to time of freight rates, as undoubtedly would be accomplished, thereby quickening all commerce and production and making life easier to mankind. Such a condition would make the selling value of these stocks in the market, guaranteed by the government, very much above par, and thereby do no violence to the holders thereof. This is not government ownership, simply government supervision, that no excesses might be committed on the public."

Metropolis Wins.

The Metropolis baseball team had good luck in the series with Sikestown, Mo., as the boys from Illinois won two out of the three games. The first game went by a score of 10 to 4, and the Metropolis boys won the second game by a score of 3 to 1. Sunday's game was lost by the close score of 2 to 1. George Block, a Paducah catcher for Metropolis, played a star game and in the first game got three two baggers and one triple out of four times at bat.

THE VANISHING FLEETS

By ROY NORTON

ILLUSTRATED BY A. WEB

"My home was on the borderland, where men fought backward and forward across our fields." He paused for a moment as if the memory of his childhood was too bitter for recapitulation, then went bravely on: "In those years the sight of ghastly wounds and cruel death was before me sometimes daily, but never far removed. When peace came there was nothing left to my mother but her ravaged farm, her bitter poverty, and her one boy. Oh, it was a nightmare, gentlemen, that never dimmed. It was a memory that never left me, as hard working, poorly clad and sometimes hungry, I grew to manhood.
My mother went, as did thousands of other widows made by war, to an early grave, prematurely worn out by work and grief."

The floodgates were down at last.
His repression was going, and he rose to his feet behind his desk trembling in every fiber, and with white, quivering lips. In the stillness of the room he stood thus for an instant; then his teeth suddenly came together with a click and his fist came down upon the table in one quick, hard blow of emphasis.

"Do you wonder," he said, "that I swore to give my life to peace? Is it strange that I who have suffered have taken unusual means to keep others from suffering as I and mine have?
I have invited you here not as the president of a nation, but as man to men to help me put an end to—war!"

Every word of his final declaration was bitten off with sharp emphasis and accentuated by a fist which beat time. The king was suddenly conscious that he had leaned forward in his chair so far that nothing but the tense grip of his hands upon the arms had held him down. In all his years he had witnessed no such scene of emotion as this, nor heard a more earnest appeal.

The president, as if regretting his lack of control, settled wearily into his seat. He had said things in a way that in any other man would have been undignified; but he, inspired by the grandeur of his purpose, failed to realize that an angel with a flaming sword could scarcely have been more impressive. He had been addressing no ordinary audience. Before him was an august ruler, but more than that, a great man. And in the hush which followed, the sovereign rose from his seat, stepped across to the desk, and for one of the few times in his life gave untrammelled vent to his feelings as a man. He put his hand out across the polished mahog-nny top as the tall form of the president straightened up. Their hands met in one strong grip of understand-

"A Message for You, Sir, from the President and Secretary of the Navy."

ing, and they looked squarely into each other's eyes, reading, comprehending, and uniting themselves together in a common purpose for humanity.

It was not the etiquette which demands that all men shall stand when a king is on his feet that brought the others from their chairs, erect, breathless and motionless. It was rather the impulsive respect and veneration due to two great minds which before their very eyes were entering an unwritten compact for a high and noble cause.

Once more they took their seats; but now by the subtle alchemy of humanity they drew their chairs together. They were no longer rulers and subjects, Englishmen and Americans, but men inspired with magnanimity toward all their fellow he-lings. They were on a Godlike plane reasoning out momentous plans involving the nations of the world and all mankind. From their combined fund of knowledge they evolved methods which were to strengthen the weak and put in leash the strong.
All reckoning of time was lost in this review of what had been accomplished and what was to be done.

The night paled, the sun crept up; the lights of the darkness were extinguished, and the day advanced without their heeding it. The last tentative clause was signed, and each knew the part which his country must play. Again they were all upon their feet, looking into one another's faces and abruptly conscious of weariness and relaxation. Too overcome to resume their homeward journey, the visitors accepted the hospitality of the White House for a few hours' rest, and staggered to their rooms.

Once, more than a hundred years before, an unwise king had caused a war between brothers which had sent them on diverse paths. Each had prospered but held aloof. And now after all this time a wiser king had proffered his hand, and the brothers were to be friends again in truth, and were to travel side by side unto the end.

longed to a number of others and that if they are trying to infuse brotherly love and sympathy among their race they were doing good. His address was warmly received. John H. McConico, of Little Rock, Ark., responded. He delivered a well prepared address and at the same time gave statistics of the good being done by the order, which came as a surprise to the thousands that were anxious to work of the new order that had planted itself in the state of Kentucky. A number of other fine addresses were delivered by prominent colored people of this city and was responded to by visiting delegates. After the program was given the delegates were entertained in the basement of the church.

The entire morning was spent in adopting the report of the committee on credentials. Grand Master William Alexander appointed the following committee on laws and resolutions: L. N. Porter, M. J. It was the best in the history of the order and it met the approval of every delegate present. The most important part of the report is as follows:

Grand Master's Report.
Grand Master William Alexander read his annual report today and also delivered an address. The head of the order being the mouthpiece of nearly 50,000 members of the colored race, it is expected that what he said on the race question will do much good in that part of the country where they are most plentiful. He said that the black man had always found that the white man is one of the best friends of the colored race, and facts will bear me out that when our people needed advice, or appealed for aid for churches, they have always found that the white man would not turn a deaf ear towards them. In industrial pursuits, they have given the black man a chance. They have never been wanting in their approval of the self-respecting, thinking and law-abiding negro and have always been ready to encourage him in the requirements of a home, farm, or other real property, and frequently lending money for large payments on property. Many times they have extended their influence to guarantee fair play for such negroes in courts. It cannot be denied that injustice has been practiced on us in all sections of the south, and it is also true that the negro's ignorance and credulity have made him an easy prey for the unscrupulous and ignorant whites who have suffered likewise, for he that knoweth little, no matter of what race, is a natural victim of the sharp-

The speaker touched lightly the question of public education, but urged whatever the requirements may be in any state, to meet them. He said get education, property and save your earnings.

He made a plea to the delegates to be indispensable factors in the uplift of the community in which they reside, and said the negroes could be to the whites an asset as the finger in a social contact, but one as the hand in all facts that tend to sustain and improve the state.

He discussed the negroes' responsibilities.

COUNCILMEN TURN DOWN CONTRACT

Tenth Street Bitulithic Proposition is Rejected.

Report of City Solicitor Campbell That City Would Bear Burden Settles Matter.

SALOON LICENSES REFUSED

Licenses were refused to Thomas Boyle, 900 North Eighth street, to J. L. Potter, 627 Campbell street, and to Philip Stephen for Ninth street, and Kentucky avenue by the council last night. These two had been adversely reported by the license committee. Attorney E. H. Puryear represented Potter and asked that the license be granted, as the undesirable women had been notified to leave that section of the city, and Potter had a good record. J. S. Ross, representing the First ward citizens, argued against granting the license. The council unanimously accepted the report of the license committee, refusing the application and the license checks were ordered returned.

Permission was given to Tutlow's saloon to transfer his license from 1047 Washington street to 825 Washington street; and to Will Ward to transfer his license from 120 Kentucky avenue to 100 Broadway.

City Solicitor James Campbell recommended that the council postpone the confirmation of the contract with the Southern Bitulithic company, as he had discovered evidence that the city is obligated to pay for the improvement, and not Mrs. T. H. Puryear, the abutting property owner, as told in The Sun. The council refused to ratify the contract and the ordinance will be given the same information by the city solicitor next Thursday night.

Vaccination was made obligatory upon all ages and sexes in the city in an ordinance introduced last night, but which was turned down by a vote of 9 to 2. A penalty of from $5 to $10 was provided for failure to comply with the ordinance. An ordinance naming the new cemetery tract "Oak Grove Addition" was given second passage. Allegs between Tennessee and Jones streets and Eleventh and Twelfth streets, were ordered graded at the expense of the abutting property owners, and similarly between Tennessee and Jones streets and Ninth and Tenth streets. New ordinances and resolutions, forbidding loud ringing by ice wagon gongs and giving permission to property owners on Clark street and on Twelfth street to lay pavements and gutters at their own expense, under direction of the city engineer, were ordered brought in by the ordinance committee.

Pay Rolls. Pay rolls and miscellaneous bills amounting to $3,957.50 were allowed by the finance committee and concurred by the council. To the city solicitor was referred the question of buying property from T. H. Torian at Fifteenth street and Kentucky avenue for an intersection, with instructions to condemn and buy. The ordinance's action on the improvements on Fifteenth street, Water street and First street from Broadway to Kentucky avenue, in supplying funds for the work, was concurred in by the council.

City Engineer Washington was instructed to investigate the feasibility of draining the gravel pit beyond the Riverside hospital and to investigate the request to improve Fourteenth street from Burnett street to Oak Grove Addition. A wire fence was ordered built around Oak Grove Addition. M. M. Coulson and E. W. Street were granted deeds to lots in Oak Grove cemetery. Complaints at over-assessment of taxes by the Sherrill-Russell Lumber company and L. P. Dills were referred to the supervisors. E. B. Pierce complained of the condition of the park at Thirtieth and Burnett streets, which was referred to the park commission. The hospital committee was instructed to build a coal house and laundry for the Riverside hospital. Councilman Lackey presided in President Lindsey's absence and Councilmen Flowers, Cornelia, Duvall, Foreman, Ford, Kreutzer, Mayer, Wilson, Young and Van Meter were present.

AN M. D. ON KIDNEY DISEASE.

Writing on kidney disease, the medical term for which is Nephritis, Dr. J. W. Chismond says in the "MEDICAL BRIEF":

"In its incipency it is as curable as any malady that the system is heir to."

"IN ITS SECONDARY STAGE WE POSSESS NO SPECIFIC FOR ITS RAVAGES."

Where does that leave the kidney medicines you have been taking?

And just as we have said over and over, it doesn't make much difference what you call kidney trouble, if it fastens, physicians and druggists have had no successful treatment for it. True, it commonly gets well at first, but if it does not, it enters the second stage that was incurable up to the discovery of Fulton's Renal Compound, which is the first thing known to reduce inflammation in kidney tissues.

When does the second stage commence? Dr. Chismond says: "IT DEVELOPS SO UNCONSCIOUSLY IT IS AS A RULE FAR ADVANCED BEFORE IT IS DISCOVERED."

In view of these acknowledged facts, people with kidney trouble should do some very serious thinking before taking futile kidney medicines under which the kidney deaths have risen to over 170 per day. Even if the inflammation is in the first stage, a course of futile medicine is delay that develops the very condition that Dr. Chismond says is "irreparable," and that was irreparable up to the date of Fulton's beneficial discovery.

If you have kidney trouble, either starting or seated, how can there be any question about your taking the only known specific for inflammation of the kidneys, which, incipient or chronic, is the real difficulty with kidney troubled people.

SECOND VICTORY

FOR "DR. FIZZ," A. M. LEAVISON & CO.'S POPULAR DRINK.

Case Against T. H. Reed for Selling It On Sunday Dismissed in the Police Court.

A. M. Leavison & company won another signal victory in the police court this morning for their popular soft drink, "Dr. Fizz," when in the case of T. H. Reed, of Ninth and Lloyd streets, who was arrested for selling the beverage on Sunday, the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal. The evidence proved there is no alcohol in the drink, and therefore it is no violation to sell it on Sunday, nor is city license necessary for its sale.

In the case against Thomas Cole a few days ago the same verdict was rendered and the drink declared a non-intoxicant, as in this case. "Dr. Fizz" is one of the best sellers Leavison & company have, and the makers contend, as the evidence in these two cases clearly indicated, and there is no alcohol in the drink, and that it is purely a soft drink.

Quannah Parker. Quannah Parker, one-time blood-thirsty Comanche Chief, was recently elected head of a district school board in Oklahoma, and his son, a graduate of Carlisle School, was appointed teacher. Quannah Parker's mother was a white woman, taken prisoner when a child by the present Comanche father. The child grew to womanhood among the Comanches, then a wild, wandering, bloodthirsty tribe, roaming the plains of Texas. The Chief made her his squaw and she bore him the son, Quannah Parker. Not long after she went back to her white people, but the Indian life had gained too strong a hold upon her to remain, and she returned to her tepee and her Chief, the father of her son. She lived with the tribe until her death.—New York Tribune.

PRICE OF WHEAT GOES UP AND DOWN

Soars Early in Week But Rain Brings Reaction.

September and July Corn Show Good Advance and There Are Heavy Out Sales.

MEMPHIS REPORT OF COTTON.

Chicago, July 21.—Weather conditions in the northwest have been the price-making factors in the wheat market during the past week. Monday's advance showed hot and dry weather and the experts agreed that the spring crop was suffering greatly and that serious damage would result should the dry weather continue. Prices, therefore, jumped sensationally and the market was thrown into a whirlwind of bullish activity. This district, however, was the recipient of heavy, beneficial rains toward the latter part of the week and prices declined somewhat from the high point established during the week. Prices at the close on Friday, however, showed gains of 1 1/2 cents for July, 1 cent for September and 1 1/2 cents for December.

The northwestern markets shared in the excitement over the dry weather and a good many buying orders filtered in from Minneapolis and Duluth. One crop expert whose reports have been received by the trade with favor all season, wired from Devil's Lake, S. D., on Monday that fields examined by him would not produce over half a crop. In many places there were large patches of the grain dry enough to burn. Similar reports were received from other sections covering a wide area. The situation in all probability was not so serious as reported, but nevertheless it gave the traders cause for apprehension, which resulted in a big boost in the prices.

Threshing Delayed. While the farmers in the northwest were praying for rain there were some sections in Nebraska and Kansas where precipitation had been all together too generously measured out, with the result that threshing was delayed and the grain in shock damaged. This was one of those peculiar incongruities of nature for which there is no accounting.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the weather map showed improved conditions, both in the Canadian and our own northwest. General rains were reported and temperatures had fallen to a reasonable degree. The trade generally was of the opinion that the good shower had saved the crop and the small holders engaged in a lively scramble to sell while the bears pounded the market vigorously. Lower prices at Liverpool stimulated the selling movement. The foreigners took an optimistic view of the crop situation in this country and Canada, and, furthermore, had favorable reports concerning the conditions in Russia and along the Danube.

The rain in the northwest not only averted serious losses in the spring wheat territory, but the situation, taken as a whole, has been so restored in the last few days that the damage claims sent broadcast will in the end prove to be gross exaggerations. Despite this fact the bulls still nourish the idea that prices are scheduled to travel to a higher level. No long wheat was dislodged on the improved conditions, however, and prices found a comfortable resting place, the bulls not feeling disposed to sell out and exhibiting little desire to add to their holdings.

Canadian Crop Safe. The Canadian crop, which is estimated at 125,000,000 bushels, is now practically assured and an early harvest is indicated. Furthermore, much of the wheat raised up there will be pressed for sale at the earliest possible (Canadian) provinces. Not only are land payments to be made, but merchants and jobbers, being in need of funds, are urging the early payment of accounts which, because of the financial panic last fall, were of Notice to Contractors. Bids will be received by the Board of Public Works and City Engineer at their office in the city hall on Thursday, July 23, 1908, at 3:30 p. m., for the following work: For the construction of sidewalk, with curb and gutter, on both sides of Broadway from First street to Water street, on Water street from Broadway to Kentucky avenue; and on the north side of Kentucky avenue from Water street to First street; and also sidewalk, curb and gutter on Fifteenth street from Clay to Trimble street; and for grading and graveling Farley Place; and for grading and graveling an alley between Tennessee and Jones streets and Sixteenth and Eighteenth streets, all as per plans and specifications in the office of the city engineer, and under ordinances authorizing said work.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS. By L. F. Kolb, Secretary.

necessity carried along for several months. From the present outlook the Canadians will have nearly 100,000,000 bushels to ship this season and the movement will be limited only by the ability of the railroads to haul the grain. This probably is the explanation for the waiting policy pursued by the foreigner.

The offerings in the winter wheat markets are constantly increasing and the pressure of hedging sales is daily growing heavier. Receivers report country acceptances light, but there is plenty of wheat being shipped on consignment, as large receipts here and in southwestern markets testify. The quality of the grain is excellent, the larger portion grading contract.

Millers in Market. There were evidences toward the end of the week of a considerable awakening of interest in the grain and flour trade the country over. The recent reports from Kansas that farmers were stacking to hold wheat stimulated rather lively competition in that section between millers and export buyers. It developed that millers had sold considerable flour to go abroad and had not yet filled their wheat requirements. The fine quality of the new wheat is bringing it quite generally into favor. Millers and distributors everywhere appear to have light stocks, foreign trade included. Quite a number of exporters who had failed to supply their wants southwest for shipment by way of the gulf, have been buying No. 2 hard winter wheat here in the last few days. Bids on hard winter wheat were practically on a working basis.

Movement of Corn Prices. September and July corn gained in price last week, while the new crop months were fractionally lower for the week. The December drifted toward a lower level because of the excellent conditions for the growing crop, while September and July, by reason of small stocks and light receipts, displayed much buoyancy. Reports from the country were reassuring, picturing a much improved outlook. However, the crop in many sections is still quite backward, and the farmers display little willingness to part with their reserves and the continued light receipts tend to hold prices up. While the shipping demand is not active, sales to the east keep pace with current arrivals and stocks here, small though they are, continue to shrink. July and September corn last week made net gains of 1 1/2 and 1 1/2 cents, respectively, while December and May lost 1/2 and 1 1/2 cents.

Active Trade in Oats. There has been a broad and active trade in oats, with prices higher. As in wheat the weather has been the chief influencing factor. The excessive heat, without moisture in the north-west was said to be burning up the crop in those states, while the farmers in the central belt also caught the pessimistic fever. Although traders had little faith in the damage reports, they lacked the nerve to sell the cereal short. Statistics on oats attracted a great deal of attention from the traders. Stocks of contract oats here at the close of the week were down to 98,000 bushels.

Cotton Report. Memphis, July 21.—The greater part of the cotton crop has gone another week's journey toward maturity without setback. The plant is large and well fruited and has a vitality that promises something for the future. It has been well cultivated and is now being rapidly laid by, clean of grass and weeds.

The weather was generally hot and dry during the week. The plant grew very fast and the soil, having been abundantly supplied with moisture by rains of the preceding weeks, sustained the plant well. Many correspondents, however, express a fear of the future if rains do not come soon. They say the plant is still succulent, having had an abundant supply of moisture all season.

In the southern parts of the central belt open bolls appeared and planters expect to begin picking at an early date. In Northern Texas the heat decreased the activity of the boll weevils.

Exceptions to these general statements are noted, as follows: Along the coast of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia heavy rains fell and cotton on the sandy hills is turning yellow. In Southern and Southeastern Texas rains have been continuous. The plant, nearly ready for maturity, has been stimulated to renewed growth at the expense of the bolls. Boll weevils have increased and are doing much damage. Picking, which had begun, will be delayed. Southern Arkansas and Northern Louisiana are in need of rain.

BIG RALLY DAY

FARMERS WILL GATHER IN PADUCAH SATURDAY.

Institute and Tobacco Association Meeting Scheduled for Same Time.

Saturday will be a big day for McCracken county farmers, who will gather at Paducah to attend the two important meetings arranged for that day. The State Farmers' Institute is to convene at Wallace park and speakers and educators of prominence will be here to address the meeting. The Planters' Protective association also has a rally scheduled for that day and arrangements will be made, so that the meetings will not conflict, and those who come to town may attend both meetings. The tobacco growers will have Capt. W. J. Stone, of Lyon county, and other prominent speakers here. Capt. Stone has nine other speaking dates in the county this week and it is intended for the meeting here Saturday to be a rally of association forces and a large crowd is expected. The association will not receive pledges of the present crop of tobacco after August 1, hence the great activity of leaders to give each farmer a chance to pledge his crop.

TOBACCO NEWS

Sales Fall Off.

Mayfield, Ky., July 21.—Sales of the Planters' Protective association during the past two weeks have shown a decidedly falling off at every market place in the entire district covered by the association, with its salesmen, says the Messenger. This, while gradual, has to a certain extent been sufficiently abrupt to excite the very strong suspicion that it is the result of some kind of an understanding between the buyers representing the foreign governments and the American Tobacco company and subsidiary concerns in this country.

The reason for this falling off is problematical. Buyers who have been most active have suddenly shown a surprising lack of interest in the market, and they are willing to hazard no guess regarding the reason for this turn of affairs. The association has already disposed of almost one-half of its holdings. That it will sell the remainder of the crop of 1907 there is little doubt, although a period of dullness may be looked for during the next few weeks. Members of the association show no signs of dissatisfaction, however, and if the trust is going to play a bluff game it will realize in the end that the amusement is one in which more than one can indulge.

No member, of course, expects the organization to dispose of the crop of 1907 in record-breaking time. The crop of last year is one to which exceptions might be reasonably taken.

THE PASSION PLAY
Or, Life of Christ

ALL WEEK, COMMENCING MONDAY, JULY 20

A wonderful and magnificent production of a touching drama on the life of Christ. A cast including Christ, his disciples, Pilate, King Herod and all ancient characters implicated, with 500 Roman soldiers and civilians.

Illustrating the life of our Savior and from birth to the ascension, as played at the last presentation in Ober Ammergau, Bavaria, reproduced by means of soul-stirring moving pictures: This play is now produced but once in ten years, and is now the sole survivor of those mystic plays or religious dramas, which were in full vogue in the middle ages in Germany, France, Italy, Spain and England.
